Professional SportsCare & Rehab Appoints Stacie Leith as the Certified Athletic Trainer for Meade High School

Gambrills, Md., October 11, 2011-- Professional SportsCare & Rehab, a top provider of physical therapy, aquatic therapy and sports medicine services, today announced that Stacie Leith, BS, ATC has joined its Sports Medicine Outreach Program and will serve as the Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC) for Meade High School in Anne Arundel County, Md.

Leith recently graduated from Towson University where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training. As an athletic training student, she assisted the certified staff in providing full-range athletic training services for Towson University's 21 NCAA Division I teams including football, men's basketball and women's lacrosse. She also served as a student athletic trainer at the Gilman School in Baltimore where she worked with middle and high school athletes.

"We are thrilled to have Stacie join our Sports Medicine team," said Greg Smith, MS, ATC, Co-owner of Professional SportsCare & Rehab and Head Athletic Trainer for the Washington Capitals of the National Hockey League. "Stacie's experience at the collegiate and scholastic level will make her a tremendous asset to the student athletes at Meade High School."

Certified Athletic Trainers (ATCs) are unique health care professionals who specialize in the prevention, assessment, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries that occur to athletes and the physically active. ATCs are formally trained in the areas of injury and illness prevention, first aid and emergency care, assessment of injury and illness, human anatomy and physiology, as well as therapeutic modalities nutrition. They have received degrees from accredited training programs. In addition to providing physical care, ATCs also specialize in patient education to help individuals prevent injury and reinjury.

Professional SportsCare & Rehab's Sports Medicine Outreach Program provides ATCs to six out of twelve high schools in Anne Arundel County. For more information about Professional SportsCare & Rehab, visit <http://www.prosportscare.com/>.
